lesotho s history has long been defined by its enclave status within south africa but it is a hard fought and hard won status that helps unite basotho through the shared history of struggle against colonial rule in the region since the end of apartheid in 1994 lesotho s status as a separate entity has been called into question though the fierce national pride built through centuries of resistance to outside rule has mitigated against any serious discussions of incorporating lesotho into south africa still the political instability and lack of a flourishing domestic economy have made life difficult for the majority of basotho and could call
